Douglas Haynes was appointed Vice Provost for Academic Personnel and Programs in 2022. As Vice Provost for Academic Personnel and Programs, he has responsibility for UC’s 74,000 academic personnel, including supporting the inclusive success of academic appointees attracted to our 10 campuses, five academic medical centers, and three national laboratories. He will have oversight responsibility for several systemwide academic programs, including the California Digital Library, UC Press, President’s Postdoctoral Fellowship Program, UC Center Sacramento, UC Washington Center (UCDC), UCTV, and the Advancing Faculty Diversity program. As Vice Provost, Professor Haynes will work closely with the Academic Senate and University leaders to assure academic priorities are met. In addition, he will function as a spokesperson to the Regents, the Legislature, and other outside agencies as needed.

Professor Haynes comes to the Office of the President from the University of California, Irvine (UCI) where he served as the inaugural Vice Chancellor for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion and Chief Diversity Officer. In that role, he oversaw nation-leading efforts that established UCI as a global model of inclusive excellence. A former Fulbright Scholar and President’s Postdoctoral Fellow, Douglas Haynes completed his Ph.D. in Modern European History at the University of California, Berkeley and received his B.A. in History from Pomona College in Claremont, CA. Joining the UCI faculty in 1992, his research program and teaching interests span from the development of the modern medical profession, comparative health care systems to representations of disease and illness in the mass media.
